$2.00

Land Office at North Platte Neb.
Aug. 5th, 1886.

Mr. Carolina Clapp has this day paid Two dollars, the Register's and Receiver's fees, to file a Declaratory Statement, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged.

Oliver Shannon
Receiver.

No. 7590

Mr. Carolina Clapp having paid the fees, has this day filed in this Office his Declaratory Statement, No. 7590 for NW section 27 township 20, of range 58, containing 160 acres, settled upon Aug 2, 1886, being UM offered.

Under the provisions of the Pre-emption Laws, the time within which final proof is required to be made on unoffered lands expires in thirty-three months from date of settlement, or from date of filing of township plat in District Land Office in case of settlement on unsurveyed lands, and on offered lands in twelve months from date of settlement; and under act of March 3, 1879, notice of intention to prove up must be given by publication in a newspaper, to be designated by the Register, for a period of thirty days, or in five consecutive issues of said paper, which notice must also contain the names of the witnesses by whom the necessary facts will be established.

Notice is therefore, hereby given that this pre-emption filing expires on July 5, 1889 after which date the tract will be subject to the claim of any other qualified party.

Very respectfully,

Jno Neville
Register.

☞ See note in red ink, which Registers and Receivers will read and EXPLAIN THOROUGHLY to persons making applications for lands where the affidavit is made before either of them.

Tender land entered by a homestead, or other entry not commuted, may be offered to other applicants, but the land cannot be taken by pre-emption, or other claim, until the homestead or other entry is actually cancelled, or the land is relinquished, after receiving the land department notice thereof; there is no obligation to offer the land to the first applicant, and the person who first offers it will be entitled to it if he is found to be a qualified claimant. If the offer is not accepted, it will subject the entry to contest, and the person who offered it will be entitled to it if he is found to be a qualified claimant. If the offer is not accepted, it will subject the entry to contest, and the person who offered it will be entitled to it if he is found to be a qualified claimant. If the offer is not accepted, it will subject the entry to contest, and the person who offered it will be entitled to it if he is found to be a qualified claimant.
