HOMESTEAD PROOF—TESTIMONY OF WITNESS.

Ida E. McComsey, being called as witness in support of the Homestead entry of Robert Smith for NE 1/4 Sec 35, T2N, R5E, testifies as follows:

Question 1.—What is your name, age, and post-office address?

Answer. Ida E. McComsey, age 32 years, P.O. address, Hall, Nebraska

Ques. 2.—Are you well acquainted with the claimant in this case and the land embraced in his claim?

Ans. I was well acquainted with the claimant, and the land embraced in his claim.

Ques. 3.—Is said tract within the limits of an incorporated town or selected site of a city or town, or used in any way for trade or business?

Ans. It is not within the limits of any town or city, or used in any way for trade or business.

Ques. 4.—State specifically the character of this land—whether it is timber, prairie, grazing, farming, coal, or mineral land.

Ans. The tract is ordinary prairie.

Ques. 5.—When did claimant settle upon the homestead and at what date did he establish actual residence thereon?

Ans. He settled on the tract in April, 1889, and he established actual residence at that time.

Ques. 6.—Have claimant and family resided continuously on the homestead since first establishing residence thereon? (If settler is unmarried, state the fact.)

Ans. He has resided continuously on the tract since settling thereon.

Ques. 7.—For what period or periods has the settler been absent from the land since making settlement, and for what purpose; and if temporarily absent, did claimant's family reside upon and cultivate the land during such absence?

Ans. Settler has not been absent.

Ques. 8.—How much of the homestead has the settler cultivated and for how many seasons did he raise crops thereon?

Ans. He has cultivated 22 acres, and has raised crops thereon 6 seasons.

Ques. 9.—What improvements are on the land and what is their value?

Ans. There is one timber tract of 10 acres, also 2 wells, $200, and 10, small, 115, 22 acres, $20.

Ques. 10.—Are there any indications of coal, salines, or minerals of any kind on the homestead? (If so, describe what they are, and state whether the land is more valuable for agricultural than for mineral purposes).

Ans. There are no indications of coal, salines, or minerals on the tract.

Ques. 11.—Has the claimant mortgaged, sold, or contracted to sell, any portion of said homestead?

Ans. He has not mortgaged, sold, or contracted to sell any portion of the homestead.

Ques. 12.—Are you interested in this claim; and do you think the settler has acted in entire good faith in perfecting this entry?

Ans. I am not interested in the claim; I think the settler has acted in good faith.

Ida E. McComsey

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the foregoing testimony was read to the witness before being subscribed, and was sworn to before me this 28 day of April, 1894
