Question 1.—What is your name, age, and post-office address?
 Answer: Ezra S. Sturman, 49, 562 Fourth St., Harrison Mo

Ques. 2.—Are you well acquainted with the claimant in this case and the land embraced in his claim?
 Ans. Yes

Ques. 3.—Is said tract within the limits of an incorporated town or selected site of a city or town, or used in any way for trade or business?
 Ans. It is not

Ques. 4.—State specifically the character of this land—whether it is timber, prairie, grazing, farming, coal, or mineral land.
 Ans. Prairie land best adapted for grazing purposes

Ques. 5.—When did claimant settle upon the homestead and at what date did he establish actual residence thereon?
 Ans. He built his house in August 1887, and established his actual residence therein about Oct. 1st 1887.

Ques. 6.—Have claimant and family resided continuously on the homestead since first establishing residence thereon? (If settler is unmarried, state the fact.)
 Ans. He has resided continuously on the homestead since first establishing his residence thereon, except one time about 3 months.

Ques. 7.—For what period or periods has the settler been absent from the land since making settlement, and for what purpose; and if temporarily absent, did claimant's family reside upon and cultivate the land during such absence?
 Ans. He was temporarily absent at one time about three months at work for means to improve the place.

Ques. 8.—How much of the homestead has the settler cultivated and for how many seasons did he raise crops thereon?
 Ans. about 5 acres, in cultivation, has planted to crop such, as corn &c. for 6 years, he uses the place mostly for grazing, for which it is best adapted.

Ques. 9.—What improvements are on the land and what is their value?
 Ans. Log house, stable, well, corral, cars and all the place under fence. I value the improvements at $300.

Ques. 10.—Are there any indications of coal, salines, or minerals of any kind on the homestead? (If so, describe what they are, and state whether the land is more valuable for agricultural than for mineral purposes).
 Ans. No indications of coal, salines or minerals.

Ques. 11.—Has the claimant mortgaged, sold, or contracted to sell, any portion of said homestead?
 Ans. He has not.

Ques. 12.—Are you interested in this claim; and do you think the settler has acted in entire good faith in perfecting this entry?
 Ans. I have no interest in the claim, I think the settler has acted in good faith in perfecting this entry.

Ezra S. Sturman

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the foregoing testimony was read to the witness before being subscribed, and was sworn to before me this 29 day of January 1894.
