See note in red ink, which Registers and Receivers will read and EXPLAIN THOROUGHLY to persons making application for lands where the affidavit is made before either of them.

NOTE.—It is required of the homestead settler that he shall reside upon and cultivate the land embraced in his homestead entry for a period of five years from the time of filing the affidavit, being also the date of entry. An abandonment of the land for more than six months works a forfeiture of the claim. Further, within two years from the expiration of the said five years he must file proof of his actual settlement and cultivation, failing to do which, his entry will be canceled. If the settler does not wish to remain five years on his tract, he can, at any time after six months, pay for it with cash or land warrants, upon making proof of settlement and cultivation from date of filing affidavit to the time of payment.

This receipt, when filed by a homestead settler, or other entry not commensurate, may be returned to the settler, but for no other purpose. It is not to be used as a receipt for the money paid, and it is not to be used as a receipt for the money paid for the land. If the settler is not satisfied with the receipt, he may return it to the Receiver, and the money will be refunded. If the settler is not satisfied with the receipt, he may return it to the Receiver, and the money will be refunded. If the settler is not satisfied with the receipt, he may return it to the Receiver, and the money will be refunded.
