(4-369.)

HOMESTEAD PROOF—TESTIMONY OF WITNESS.
Cothe asthur
John a Chupturi being called as witness in support of the Homestead fentry of George Rolling for North & Dec 13 19 tentifies as follows:
Ques What is your name, live, and post office address? Ans It hu & Slingtown up 60 Port Office Harmany News	~
Ques. 2.—Are you well acquainted with the claimant in this case and the land embraced in his claim?
Ans The Ori
Ques. 3.—Is said tract within the limits of an incorporated town or selected site of a city or town, or	K used in any way for trade or business?
Ans no Dir it is not.
Ques. 4.—State specifically the character of this land—whether it is timber, prairie, grazing, farming, coal, or mineral land.
Ques. 5.—When did claimant settle upon the homestead and at what date did he establish actual resi-
Ques. 5.—when did claimant settle upon the homestead and at what date did he establish actual resi-
Ans he settled on the land on the 21 of May 1886. Islaturted resedince at that time
Ques. 6.—Have claimant and family resided continuously on the homestead since first establishing residence thereon? (If settler is unmarried, state the fact.)
Age fas or they have verteel this commonly.
to (his married
Ques. 7.—For what period or periods has the settler been absent from the land since making settle-	-
Ques. 7.—For what period or periods has the settler been absent from the land since making settle- ment, and for what purpose; and if temporarily absent, did claimant's family reside upon and cultivate the
Ques. 7.—For what period or periods has the settler been absent from the land since making settlement, and for what purpose; and if temporarily absent, did claimant's family reside upon and cultivate the land during such absence?
Ques. 7.—For what period or periods has the settler been absent from the land since making settle- ment, and for what purpose; and if temporarily absent, did claimant's family reside upon and cultivate the
Ques. 7.—For what period or periods has the settler been absent from the land since making settlement, and for what purpose; and if temporarily absent, did claimant's family reside upon and cultivate the land during such absence? Ans. They have the form the land since making settlement, and for what purpose; and if temporarily absent, did claimant's family reside upon and cultivate the land surprise for the land since making settlement, and for what purpose; and if temporarily absent, did claimant's family reside upon and cultivate the
Ques. 7.—For what period or periods has the settler been absent from the land since making settlement, and for what purpose; and if temporarily absent, did claimant's family reside upon and cultivate the land during such absence? Ans. They were to be the land during such absence of the land since making settlement, and the land since making settlement, and for what purpose; and if temporarily absent, did claimant's family reside upon and cultivate the land during such absence of the land during such abse
Ques. 7.—For what period or periods has the settler been absent from the land since making settlement, and for what purpose; and if temporarily absent, did claimant's family reside upon and cultivate the land during such absence? Ans. They were two forms of the homestead has the settler cultivated and for how many seasons did he raise crops thereon? Ans. Murrly from the constant of the homestead has the settler cultivated and for how many seasons did he raise crops thereon?
Ques. 7.—For what period or periods has the settler been absent from the land since making settlement, and for what purpose; and if temporarily absent, did claimant's family reside upon and cultivate the land during such absence? Ans. They have two forms of the homestead has the settler cultivated and for how many seasons did he raise crops thereon? Ans. Murty first them. For the land and west is their value?
Ques. 7.—For what period or periods has the settler been absent from the land since making settlement, and for what purpose; and if temporarily absent, did claimant's family reside upon and cultivate the land during such absence? Ans. They were two forms of the homestead has the settler cultivated and for how many seasons did he raise crops thereon? Ans. They first the forms for the land and what is their value? Ans. They were a former to former to former the former than the form
Ques. 7.—For what period or periods has the settler been absent from the land since making settlement, and for what purpose; and if temporarily absent, did claimant's family reside upon and cultivate the land during such absence? Ans. They have two form a form. Ques. 8.—How much of the homestead has the settler cultivated and for how many seasons did he raise crops thereon? Ans. Therefore, for the land and what is their value? Ques. 9.—What improvements are on the land and what is their value? Ans. They man a lower a Romen to world. So carried, femaled. However, for the land and	00
Ques. 7.—For what period or periods has the settler been absent from the land since making settlement, and for what purpose; and if temporarily absent, did claimant's family reside upon and cultivate the land during such absence? Ans. They have two form a form. Ques. 8.—How much of the homestead has the settler cultivated and for how many seasons did he raise crops thereon? Ans. Therefore, for the constant of the land and what is their value? Ques. 9.—What improvements are on the land and what is their value? Ans. They have a former a former to the former of 8000 constant of the former of the	700
Ques. 7.—For what period or periods has the settler been absent from the land since making settlement, and for what purpose; and if temporarily absent, did claimant's family reside upon and cultivate the land during such absence? Ana They have two form a found of the homestead has the settler cultivated and for how many seasons did he raise crops thereon. Ans. Thereby for the land and what is their value? Ans. They may a wound a found to their value? Ans. They may a wound a found to the land and what is their value? Ques. 10.—Are there any indications of coal, salines, or minerals of any kind on the homestead? (If so, describe what they are, and state whether the land is more valuable for agricultural than for mineral	200
Ques. 7.—For what period or periods has the settler been absent from the land since making settlement, and for what purpose; and if temporarily absent, did claimant's family reside upon and cultivate the land during such absence? Ans. They were two for the homestead has the settler cultivated and for how many seasons did he raise crops thereon? Ans. They first thereon for the land and what is their value? Ques. 9.—What improvements are on the land and what is their value? Ans. They were a force world Societies of 860 greater the force of 860 greaters. Ques. 10.—Are there any indications of coal, salines, or minerals of any kind on the homestead? (If so, describe what they are, and state, whether the land is more valuable for agricultural than for mineral purposes.)	700
Ques. 7—For what period or periods has the settler been absent from the land since making settlement, and for what purpose; and if temporarily absent, did claimant's family reside upon and cultivate the land during such absence? Ans. They have two form a found of the homestead has the settler cultivated and for how many seasons did he raise crops thereon? Ans. They first the form for the land and what is their value? Ques. 9—What improvements are on the land and what is their value? Ans. They there a found of former and former and for how many seasons did he raise crops thereon? Ques. 9—What improvements are on the land and what is their value? Ans. They there are former a found of flat roles of 860 controls. Ques. 10—Are there any indications of coal, salines, or minerals of any kind on the homestead? (If so, describe what they are, and state whether the land is more valuable for agricultural than for mineral purposes.) Ans. When what they are, and state whether the land is more valuable for agricultural than for mineral purposes.)	200
Ques. 7.—For what period or periods has the settler been absent from the land since making settlement, and for what purpose; and if temporarily absent, did claimant's family reside upon and cultivate the land during such absence? Ans. They were two for the homestead has the settler cultivated and for how many seasons did he raise crops thereon? Ans. They first thereon for the land and what is their value? Ques. 9.—What improvements are on the land and what is their value? Ans. They were a force world Societies of 860 greater the force of 860 greaters. Ques. 10.—Are there any indications of coal, salines, or minerals of any kind on the homestead? (If so, describe what they are, and state, whether the land is more valuable for agricultural than for mineral purposes.)	000
Ques. 7.—For what period or periods has the settler been absent from the land since making settlement, and for what purpose; and if temporarily absent, did claimant's family reside upon and cultivate the land during such absence? Ans. They were Two form a form. Ques. 8.—How much of the homestead has the settler cultivated and for how many seasons did he raise crops thereon? Ans. They for the form of the land and what is their value? Ans. They were a form a former of 860 ceres of the former of the homestead? (If so, describe what they are, and state whether the land is more valuable for agricultural than for mineral purposes.) Ans. More what they are, and state whether the land is more valuable for agricultural than for mineral purposes.) Ans. More what they are, and state whether the land is more valuable for agricultural than for mineral purposes.) Ans. More what they are, and state whether the land is more valuable for agricultural than for mineral purposes.)	200
Ques. 7.—For what period or periods has the settler been absent from the land since making settlement, and for what purpose; and if temporarily absent, did claimant's family reside upon and cultivate the land during such absence? Ans. They would be the homestead has the settler cultivated and for how many seasons did he raise crops thereon? Ans. They was a former for the land and what is their value? Ans. They was a work a former former to some former for the homestead? Ans. They was a work a former for the land and what is their value? Ans. They was a work a former former former for any kind on the homestead? (If so, describe what they are, and state whether the land is more valuable for agricultural than for mineral purposes.) Ans. Was a former fo	700
Ques. 7—For what period or periods has the settler been absent from the land since making settlement, and for what purpose; and if temporarily absent, did claimant's family reside upon and cultivate the land during such absence? Ans. They were Two free absence. Ques. 8—How much of the homestead has the settler cultivated and for how many seasons did he raise crops thereon? Ans. They first the formation for the land and what is their value? Ques. 9—What improvements are on the land and what is their value? Ans. They first there a formation and file notice of 860 contracted. Therefore, and state whether the land is more valuable for agricultural than for mineral purposes.) Ans. They what they are, and state whether the land is more valuable for agricultural than for mineral purposes.) Ans. The Drift was the claimant mortgaged, sold, or contracted to sell any portion of said homestead? Ans. The Drift was the claim and do you think the settler has betted in entire good faith in perfecting this entry? Ans. The Drift was the state and do you think the settler has been interested in this claim; and do you think the settler has been interested in entire good faith in perfecting this entry? Ans. The Drift was the state of the settler has been interested in this claim; and do you think the settler has been interested in this claim; and do you think the settler has been interested in this claim; and do you think the settler has been interested in this claim; and do you think the settler has been interested in this claim; and do you think the settler has been interested in this claim; and do you think the settler has been interested in this claim; and do you think the settler has been interested in this claim; and do you think the settler has been interested in this claim; and do you think the settler has been interested in this claim; and do you think the settler has been interested in this claim; and do you think the settler has been interested in this claim; and do you think the settler has been interested in	200
Ques. 7.—For what period or periods has the settler been absent from the land since making settlement, and for what purpose; and if temporarily absent, did claimant's family reside upon and cultivate the land during such absence? Ans. They would be the homestead has the settler cultivated and for how many seasons did he raise crops thereon? Ans. They was a former for the land and what is their value? Ans. They was a work a former former to some former for the homestead? Ans. They was a work a former for the land and what is their value? Ans. They was a work a former former former for any kind on the homestead? (If so, describe what they are, and state whether the land is more valuable for agricultural than for mineral purposes.) Ans. Was a former fo	700
Ques. 7—For what period or periods has the settler been absent from the land since making settlement, and for what purpose; and if temporarily absent, did claimant's family reside upon and cultivate the land during such absence? Ans. They were Two free absence. Ques. 8—How much of the homestead has the settler cultivated and for how many seasons did he raise crops thereon? Ans. They first the formation for the land and what is their value? Ques. 9—What improvements are on the land and what is their value? Ans. They first there a formation and file notice of 860 contracted. Therefore, and state whether the land is more valuable for agricultural than for mineral purposes.) Ans. They what they are, and state whether the land is more valuable for agricultural than for mineral purposes.) Ans. The Drift was the claimant mortgaged, sold, or contracted to sell any portion of said homestead? Ans. The Drift was the claim and do you think the settler has betted in entire good faith in perfecting this entry? Ans. The Drift was the state and do you think the settler has been interested in this claim; and do you think the settler has been interested in entire good faith in perfecting this entry? Ans. The Drift was the state of the settler has been interested in this claim; and do you think the settler has been interested in this claim; and do you think the settler has been interested in this claim; and do you think the settler has been interested in this claim; and do you think the settler has been interested in this claim; and do you think the settler has been interested in this claim; and do you think the settler has been interested in this claim; and do you think the settler has been interested in this claim; and do you think the settler has been interested in this claim; and do you think the settler has been interested in this claim; and do you think the settler has been interested in this claim; and do you think the settler has been interested in this claim; and do you think the settler has been interested in	200
Ques. 7.—For what period or periods has the settler been absent from the land since making settlement, and for what purpose; and if temporarily absent, did claimant's family reside upon and cultivate the land during such absence? Ans. They have two forms a form to for how many seasons did he raise crops thereon? Ans. Therefore, for the land and what is their value? Ans. They have a former to form to form the land and what is their value? Ans. They have a former to former to former to former of 8600 and the land and what is their value? Ans. They have a former to former to former of 8600 and the land and what is their value? Ans. They first tenes collinated all of the homestead? (If so, describe what they are, and state whether the land is more valuable for agricultural than for mineral purposes.) Ans. They what they are, and state whether the land is more valuable for agricultural than for mineral purposes. Ans. They what they are, and state whether the land is more valuable for agricultural than for mineral purposes.) Ans. They what they are, and state whether the land is more valuable for agricultural than for mineral purposes.) Ans. They what they are interested in this claim; and do you think the settler has acted in entire good faith in perfecting this entry? Ans. I was the claimant mortgaged, sold, or contracted to self any portion of said homestead? Ans. They was the claimant mortgaged, sold, or contracted to self any portion of said homestead? Ans. They was the claimant mortgaged, sold, or contracted to self any portion of said homestead? Ans. They was the claimant mortgaged, sold, or contracted to self any portion of said homestead? Ans. They was the claimant mortgaged, sold, or contracted to self any portion of said homestead? Ans. They was the claimant mortgaged, sold, or contracted to self any portion of said homestead? Ans. They was the claimant mortgaged, sold, or contracted to self any portion of said homestead? Ans. They was the claimant mortgaged, sold, or contracted to self a	200
Ques. 7—For what period or periods has the settler been absent from the land since making settlement, and for what purpose; and if temporarily absent, did claimant's family reside upon and cultivate the land during such absence? Ans. They have two form absence of the homestead has the settler cultivated and for how many seasons did he raise crops thereon? Ans. They have for the land and what is their value? Ans. They have a former to forme	700

(The testimony of witnesses must be taken at the same time and place and before the same officer as claimant's final affidavit. The answers must be full and complete to each and every question asked, and officers taking testimony will be expected so make no mistakes in dates, description of land, or otherwise.)

8-37